NOTES

Toppling Goliath's Dorothy's
New World Lager
1.5 oz Cedar Ridge Iowa
Bourbon Whiskey (Use whatever lager and whiskey you have on hand.
At this point, it doesn't really matter.)

Four lager into pint glass.
Create a positive mantra (e.g. you'll be OK).
Pour a shot worth of whiskey
into the pint of lager.
Either down the contents
quickly, or sip while reading a magazine you have lying around.
Repeat the mantra as necessary.

There was a time I skipped a job interview, because I panicked that I was under-qualified,
but also because my car wouldn't start, so I went back to our house and drank a beer in the kitchen at nine in the morning, while I emailed the company to inform them I had received a position elsewhere, when, really, I was drinking a beer in the kitchen at nine in the morning, wearing the suit your dad gave me.
